Dear Sirs

Your note to hand this morn by second post, regarded doubtless by the address. The collection in question is that of the late J.G. Murdoch one of very considerable magnitude the English series is perhaps the finest ever formed and he possessed a very fine series of Historical medals especially rich in gold examples. I have had no opportunity yet of examining the American and Canadian series but he always gave me to understand that he possessed a fine lot; I believe it is intended that first portion (English) Will I. to Charles I will be sold about March next.

a further sale about May perhaps the Scotch and Irish series and later on a sale of Medals but of this nothing is really settled I presume the English Colonial the American and the Canadian will form a separate portion

I shall be glad to keep you posted but at present nothing is practically settled but what I have mentioned.

Yours Very Truly

Dear Sirs

I am in receipt of your letter and have to thank you for remittance for excess postage.

I am sorry I cannot at present give you any decided notes as to the fixture of the Murdoch sale the present intention is I believe to commence next March by selling a portion of the English series to be followed in May by the Scotch Coins and then in June a portion or perhaps all the Medals this would leave to be sold the balance of the English Series the Colonial American and Foreign so it would look as if these series might not be offered until Nov. 1903 I will however keep you posted

Yours very obediently
Francis C. Whelan
